The St. Louis Area Hotel Association (SLAHA) is the "Voice of Hospitality" in St. Louis representing the finest full and limited service hotels in the Greater St. Louis Area and the allied companies that provide products and services to support the hotel properties and their guests. SLAHA's purpose is to provide a conduit of communications between members and other related associations, educational programs, networking opportunities for our members, monitor legislative activities, and educate future employees of the industry through our mentoring activities and scholarship program. From time to time, SLAHA circulates information regarding SLAHA, legislative updates, events and other matters. If you would like to receive such information and materials via email or fax, please provide your email address and facsimile number below. By listing your email address and/or facsimile number, you are providing express permission for SLAHA to forward information and materials to you via the listed email address and/or facsimile number and to include such information in the SLAHA Membership Directory (online and hard copy). SLAHA reserves the right to accept/reject membership at its sole discretion consistent with its purpose.
