The purpose of the St. Louis Area Hotel Association Association is to develop an effective working relationship between the general managers of member hotel properties (full service and limited), ensure that members adhere to the highest ethical standards of the lodging industry, provide legislative and regulatory representation on matters pertaining to the lodging and tourism industry, and create a favorable climate that promotes tourism and convention business opportunities. The Association also promotes careers in the hospitality industry by awarding college scholarships to qualified high school graduates and enrolled college students who are seeking a degree in the hospitality industry. From time to time, SLAHA circulates information regarding SLAHA, legislative updates, events and other matters. If you would like to receive such information and materials via email or fax, please provide your email address and facsimile number below. By listing your email address and/or facsimile number, you are providing express permission for SLAHA to forward information and materials to you via the listed email address and/or facsimile number and to include such information in the SLAHA Membership Directory (online).
